Delavan, WI / May 16, 2017 - Save the Date for Brick Street Days in Delavan, WI - June 23 & 24, 2017!

Brick Street Days will be held on Friday, June 23 and Saturday, June 24. The event will kick off Friday night at the Phoenix Park Bandshell with the Old-Time Radio Show at 7pm, featuring Orson Welles, aka the Kane Shadow, as he visits Delavan, Wisconsin, and is approached by a distressed and beautiful woman, who desperately needs his help to solve a murder...hers! Orson wanders the streets and shops of Delavan looking for clues as to who could do such a crime.

Saturday morning begins early with flea market vendors, followed by food, artists and art demonstrations, demos by local businesses and music. Three guided tours of the downtown Walldog murals will be offered, along with the unveiling of the next Walldog mural, to be painted in September during Scarecrow Fest.

Additionally, how would you like to see your name, or the name of a loved one, honored on a commemorative brick installed in the sidewalk of downtown Delavan? The Delavan Historic Foundation raises money by selling commemorative bricks, and on Saturday, June 24, during Brick Street Days, the city will install the latest group of commemorative bricks. Order your commemorative brick by May 22 to have it installed during Brick Street Days. To purchase a commemorative brick, you can pick up a form from Remember When, 313 E. Walworth Ave., Delavan, or call 262.728.8670.
